DR. KIMBERLY TURNER PRESENTS
“SEX AFTER 60” SEMINAR
AS PART OF WOMEN’S HEALTH SERIES

Columbia, MD – Kimberly Moran Turner, MD invites the public to a free seminar, “Sex After 60: A Discussion About Menopause & Sexuality.”

Dr. Turner, a Columbia OB/GYN, will be joined by guest speaker, Lindiwe Greenwood, MD, who is a family practitioner concentrating in women’s health at her new office in Howard County.

The seminar is scheduled for Monday, November 5 at 7:00 p.m. at the Hickory Ridge Community Center. Refreshments will be provided.

Registration is requested by Friday, November 2, and a $5 donation to the Domestic Violence Center of Howard County is asked but not required for attendance.

To register, please call Dr. Turner’s office at 410-715-1060.

The OB/GYN practice of Kimberly Turner, MD and Associates, opened in 2005 when Dr. Turner decided to return to her Howard County roots to care for women. Prior to opening her practice, she worked for a group OB/GYN practice in Baltimore City, where she delivered more than 1500 babies in the past 10 years. Dr. Turner’s practice is the only solo, female-owned OB/GYN practice in the county. For more information, contact Shaun at 410-715-1060.
